Friday Football at Pinnacle Sports is for both the experienced player or the player entering their first year of football that want the benefits of a fun and instructional football program. Athletes in grades 3-6 can learn the basics of playing all the positions on both sides of the ball. This program is perfect for any player looking to get in shape for the upcoming football season and learn techniques that will help them be successful on and off the field.

- Have fun learning the proper fundamentals of the game of football
- Enjoy drills that improve coordination and enhance footwork
- Learn position specific techniques used in game situations
- Head Coach Pat Weigel and a staff of experienced youth football coaches
